“Spinsters and the City” Fall Charity Party San Francisco’s Noted Philanthropic Women’s Organization Hosts Gathering

September 22, 2005 -- SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. -- The members of Spinsters of San Francisco danced the night away to DJ Daymitreus at the fabulous “Spinsters and the City” Fall Charity Party on September 22nd at Mr. Smith’s, in the eclectic SOMA district. Sleek, chic, and sophisticated attendees mingled and exchanged witty repartee while sipping champagne cocktails and specialty cosmos and martinis provided by Belvedere. Advance ticket holders were treated to a special VIP hour from 8-9 p.m. when the rest of the party arrived.

“Spinsters and the City” Fall Charity Party attendees included the general membership of Spinsters of San Francisco along with board members Gia Colosi (President), Kristin Hagan (Vice President and “Spinsters and the City” Event Chair), Marney Parker (Secretary), Krista Mitzel (Treasurer), and Erika Lodge (Membership Director). In addition, guests included Bay Area professionals interested in a night out for a good cause. Proceeds from the event go to Spinsters of San Francisco’s designated charity for 2005-2006.

Spinsters of San Francisco is a social and philanthropic organization of up to 175 members, founded in San Francisco in 1929. Nonprofit by charter, the group is comprised of college-educated, unmarried women who sponsor and raise funds for a designated local charity. The charity is selected by a vote of the membership each year. For more information about Spinsters of San Francisco, please visit sfpinsters.com.
