Shake It Up Winter Charity Party
One of San Francisco's Most Notable Philanthropic Women's Organizations Hosts Martini-Themed Fete

March 10, 2003 -- SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. -- The members of Spinsters of San Francisco hosted the "Shake It Up" Winter Charity Party on March 6, 2003, at the eclectic gallery and bar South of Market at the 111 Minna Gallery. While viewing various paintings and sculptures, Spinsters of San Francisco drank Cosmopolitans and Martinis as they mingled with other art enthusiasts listening to the spinning tunes of D.J. David Gwynn.

"Shake It Up" Winter Charity Party attendees included the general membership of Spinsters of San Francisco along with board members Alexa Harnett (President), Michelle Anapolsky (Vice President and "Shake It Up" Event Chair), Elizabeth Conrady (Secretary) and Lisa Ligon (Membership Director). In addition, attendees included young urbanites interested in enjoying a cocktail for a good cause.

Partial proceeds from the event will go to Spinsters of San Francisco designated charity for 2003, the Bayview Hunter's Point YMCA "Just 4 Girls" program, a mentoring program for young schoolgirls in the Bayview Hunter's Point neighborhood. Spinsters of San Francisco have supported the Bayview Hunter's Point YMCA "Just 4 Girls" program for two years running, and members support the charity through both fundraising and volunteer efforts.

Spinsters of San Francisco is a social and philanthropic organization of up to 175 members, founded in San Francisco in 1929. Nonprofit by charter, our group is comprised of college educated, unmarried women who sponsor and raise funds each year for a designated local charity. The charity is selected by a vote of the membership each year. For more information about Spinsters of San Francisco, please visit our website at www.sfspinsters.com.
